

Kent SLA AGM & Author Talk

Wednesday, 20th March 2019,
4:30 - 6:30pm

Thamesview School, Thong Lane, Gravesend DA12 4LF

All Kent SLA members are warmly invited to our annual AGM, which this year includes an Author Talk with Sue Wallman.

Sue Wallman, author of thrillers for 11+ years, is a former magazine journalist who now works in a secondary school library. She grew up on the south coast of England, and graduated from Oxford Brookes with a degree in Publishing and English, and now lives in London.

Lying About Last Summer was selected for the Zoella Book Club in autumn 2016 and given a special edition cover for books sold through WHSmith. It won the Worcestershire Teen Book Award 2017.

See How They Lie, a Tesco YA Book of the Month, was shortlisted for the South East Schools Themed Book Awards 2018 and won the Lancashire Book of the Year 2018.

Your Turn To Die has been shortlisted for this year's Maidstone Area Book Awards.

Sue is currently working on her fourth book which is due to be published this year.

To book your place, please RSVP to Kent SLA Secretary Ros Waltho:
rw@queenelizabeths.kent.sch.uk

For enquiries regarding directions to the venue please contact Thamesview Librarian Vanda Fox:
v.fox@thamesview.kent.sch.uk